Wmr iMilSills holy death occurred E on Wednesday, the 6th of May, 1841, and his interment took place the following Sunday--the very time when the Provincial Council for that month and year was sitting in Baltimore. The Rt. Rev. Dr Kenrick, the Bishop of Philadelphia, who was then at the Council was notified by one of the Reverend Clergymen at Loretto, that the great Missionary, the Apostle of the Alleghanies was no more; and through this Prelate the sad news was announced to the assembled Fathers who expressed their heartfelt sorrow at the loss of so bright an ornament of the Church. He lay in state in St. Mary s Chapel for four days, during which time ceaseless crowds from all parts of Cambria county came to take a long last look...
