

Relentless

By Rachel Treu

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is about being in your early twenties, holding a broken, throbbing, aching heart, and trying to figure out what to do next. Maybe you're twenty, or twenty-three, and a relationship you thought was solid has just crumbled, and you feel hollow. This book is for you. It's messy, and it's raw, and it's probably not as chock-full of wisdom as I want to believe. But this is my offering to my sisters (and brothers) who need some encouragement. This is my offering back to God, to say a big fat thank you for letting me survive a season I didn't think I could survive. This is a story about growing up, and marveling at grace even through tears, and seeing God work in big and mysterious ways. It's kind of impossible to recognize a story as it's happening. There is no rhyme or reason, no plot, no obvious inciting incident or climax, when you're living it. But once you begin to gain a little perspective, the story is...
